RELATIONSHIPS ARE EVERYTHING

*"I have great friends at Day Services!
They are all good people. I like all the different things I get to do, like eating out!"*

-Victoria, Day Services participant

MARC promotes caring and dignified relationships in a family-oriented community served by professional providers. Each individual is encouraged to explore their interests and engage in new experiences and opportunities.

Serving the greater Madison area, including Stoughton and Mt. Horeb.

Meaningful Relationships and Activities

MARC Day Services. Daily activities are matched by the interests and needs of each individual. Individual and group activities provide opportunities for social interaction and encourage self-esteem and growth.

Staff Supports. Compassionate programming is offered in a safe, accessible and barrier free environment. Friendly, capable staff provides support which allows each individual to participate to the extent they are able.

Attendance Options. Individuals can attend full time or part time, depending on available openings. Attendance is planned to meet individual needs and encourage a sense of community.

Daily Living Skills. MARC centers work closely with medical, rehab, residential, and other providers to enable individuals to maintain their current skills and abilities. Attention and accommodation to meet specific care needs are earnestly considered during care planning.
